“Sir Patrick is an intelligent, honest and deeply sensitive person. I have not noticed in him the display of bad habits that are common in most people. He has a wide variety interests and can converse on numerous subjects. He has been involved with a number of projects which help children. A person like this would have to be good father material, because being loving and kind are two of the necessary qualities that he possesses.”

Knight Commander
Sovereign White Knights of Malta - Order of St. Germain

“Brother Patricks Kind of a character is something extraordinary. During the past years when I needed help in translation of long documents from German into English he never said "NO" even as he was very busy!! His speech was never rude i-e. but always friendly in the strong belief all humans are sisters and brothers. “

Hubert Zeitlmair
Professor of History & Archaeology UQD

“Since I have had few interactions with Patrick, I will truthfully express what I have experienced--

Patrick has a noble soul, and sincerely wants to help his fellow man out of the web of lies and deceit that we live with, and entrap this civilization in a virtual prison that seeks to enslave most of the population.

It takes a great deal of courage to step forward and express your truth against overwhelming odds. It means risking your reputation, the loss of friends and support of relatives, and even nationality when you disconnect from their corruption and mindset of manipulation. It reminds me of a hologram--if you break apart a hologram of a rose, each piece shows the same whole picture, although a little smaller. We as Ladies and Knights are the pieces in this hologram, and our common ideals merge into a larger picture. We each are no more or no less than the other, and no more or less in importance. When one seeks help, it is incumbent upon all to lend a hand, for there is strength in unity, even if all that can be supplied is good intent.

Patrick is a person who seeks to educate those around him, and thus transcend ignorance--in doing so enriching us intellectually. We each use our skills to affect a positive change to those around us, and Patrick seeks to use his knowledge and deep intuition to accomplish this.

I cannot imagine such a noble soul doing anything other than this, and any accusation must weigh against what I have known and experienced. If what you know in your heart is other than what is stated, one must go with what you intuit, for the truth is not only an intellectual phenomenon, but what is also felt in the soul.

This is all I can really say, and I admit it may not weigh enough in the balance against any accusation, but it is my truth.”

Sir William Donovan
Knight Commander
Sovereign White Knights of Malta - Order of St. Germain
